Dear Art lover,

Azerbaijan unleashed a large-scale war against Armenia in 2020. Thousands of young Armenians sacrificed their lives in the name of freedom and democracy, in the name of protecting the rights of the people of Artsakh. Seeing and witnessing the terrible consequences of the war, David Danielyan, after a long creative depression, began to create again in 2023. His resurgence works are full of light, hope and life. They came to prove that life will prevail eventually.
